Joseph Kala, a shoemaker working at the McDonald shop, was found dead this morning on the floor of his house on College Walk, near St. Louis College. A postmortem examination showed that heart failure was the cause of his death.

MANDAMUS TO SUPREME COURT

Law Questions Reserved
From Circuit
Court

The mandamus suit of John S.
Chandler, by his attorney, W. S. Eddings, to compel Secretary of the Territory Mott-Smith to receive his nomination for Senator from the Fourth Senatorial District, was this morning brought before Judge Alexander Lindsay, in the Circuit Court, and was then reserved on questions of law to the Supreme Court.

Mr. Mott-Smith, by Acting Attorney General Whitney, filed a motion to quash the proceedings this morning on technical deficiencies in the petition of Judge Edgings. Edgings stated, however, that this had been brought about through his eagerness to get the matter before the Courts as soon as possible, and, as it would only mean additional delay in getting at the real point to introduce the motion to quash, Judge Lindsay, at the request of Whitney, overruled the motion.

The Secretary relies on his answer to the petition, in which he states that the nomination papers and the fee of $25 were not tendered to him until after the time set by law had elapsed. He also states that at this time he did not have the power to accept the nomination.

CAMPAIGN PLANS

was going to take part in the soap box campaign. Crabbe said that the party must do so in order to respond to the box orators of other parties.

Judd asked for permission to place the responsibility of the meetings on Vice-Chairman Chillingworth. No objection was offered.

Home Rulers Friends.
"I want to say," said Atkinson, "that our only chance of losing is to get into any personal fights. We want the friendship of the Home Rulers.
They have endorsed a number of our men and we want their support instead of getting them mad."

At a meeting held last night by the committee, Chillingworth had reported that eight Republican road workers had been fired for not attending the Aala rally, and that the Supervisors were laying off the men on Saturdays, when, according to law, they were entitled to a full day's pay for half a day's work.

Road Men Not Fired.
Costa explained in regard to the allegation that eight Republican road workers had been discharged because they failed to attend the Aala meeting, that he had seen four of the eight men, and they were willing to appear before the committee and deny the truth of the report. As a matter of fact they belonged to a gang which was too large to be constantly engaged in lawless acts.

Admiral Beckley states that he has nothing to do with Charlie Achi in money matters, and denies the whole thing that was published in the Star.
"I owe Achi nothing and have promised him none," said the Admiral.

ROOSEVELT WON'T STUMP

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 7.—President Roosevelt is convinced that the political situation makes it unnecessary for him to go out on the stump personally in the interest of William H. Taft.

NO WAR IN BALKANS

PARIS, France, Oct. 7.—The situation in the Balkans is clearing, and it seems now that war is improbable, the international conference summoned being expected to bring about a peaceable settlement of the troubles in which Turkey, Bulgaria, Servia, and Austria are involved.

ASK AUSTRIA TO RECONSIDER

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 7.—Great Britain has asked the Austrian government to reconsider its intention to annex the Province of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the formal declaration of which move was issued today at Vienna. Turkey, which exercises suzerain rights over the province, has already issued a protest against Austria's action.

JAPANESE CHRISTIANS REJOICE

TOKIO, Japan, Oct. 7.—The Japanese Christians are rejoicing at the determination arrived at by those in charge of the preparations for the reception to be tendered the American Atlantic Fleet to eliminate intoxicating liquors and the engagement of geisha girls from all official receptions.

TAFT AND BRYAN AT BANQUET

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 7.—William H. Taft and William Jennings Bryan met here tonight at a banquet, greeting each other cordially. The speeches at the function were nonpartisan.

The Ghost Has Left Punchbowl For The Orpheum Saloon played, and eight were laid off each week in rotation. These men had been laid off as it was their turn, and would be employed again next week, when their time came.

In regard to the laying off of the road workers on Saturdays it was decided to confer with the Supervisors in order to have this practice changed.
Negligent Business Men.

Joe Cohen called the attention of the committee to the fact that a large number of business men had failed to register. For instance, there were eight in the Young Hotel who had not registered yet. "We want these men to register," said Cohen, "because most of them will vote the Republican ticket. It would be a good thing to publish the names of the business men who do not register."

Iaukea Helos Rose.
Charlie Rose, the Democratic candidate for Deputy Sheriff, this morning filed his nomination papers. It was a significant fact that among the signatures which appeared on the paper was that of Sheriff Iaukea, and the report of this immediately flew through the political circles like wildfire. It was thought very strange that Sheriff Iaukea should sign the papers of Rose, who is a rival to Bonnie Monsarrat, Iaukea's running mate, whose papers, by the way, Iaukea did not sign. Many guesses as to just how Bonnie would like this were made, especially when it was learned that the Sheriff had signed the Rose document, not at Rose's request, but at his own initiative.

A New Candidate.
A new candidate for the office of Deputy Sheriff of Ewa and Wai-anae on the Democratic ticket, has entered the field, namely Joseph H. Makaanani, who takes the place of McAnues, who was nominated without his consent, and who withdrew the day after the convention.

Aala Mass Meeting.
The Democrats have selected the following list of speakers for their ratification meeting, which is to be held at Aala Park next Saturday evening: Sam K. Kaloa, H. T. Moore, J. J. Fera, E. K. Rathburn, Judge Quarles, E. M.
Watson, L. L. McCandless, J. K. Paole and Frank R. Harvey.

The Home Rulers and Laborites will go to Iwilei tomorrow night to see if they can pull some votes from the grasp of the Republican party. 7:30 meeting will be called to order at 7:00 o'clock.

Captain Nahora Hipsa, a Republican and the defender of Iwilei fort, will be there with his army, prepared to drive the fusionists from the battlefield.

The Island Tour.
The majority of the candidates who are running at large on the Republican ticket and the candidates for the House from the Fifth district starting this morning at 9 o'clock on their tour around the island. They were accompanied by Stephen Desha and Bernard Kelekolio, the Boy Orator.

The candidates arrived at Kaneohe Court House at about 10:40 o'clock this morning and were greeted by Frank Paha and the other Republican workers there.

The candidates immediately got down to business and addressed the audience, numbering about sixty, which had gathered to see and hear the candidates. At 12:30, John H.
Wise was addressing the Kaneohe people, about six speakers having preceded him. Those who spoke in English had their speeches interpreted by the Boy Orator. The meeting was most orderly. The candidates were to resume their trip at about 2 o'clock.

Owes Achi Nothing.
Admiral Beckley states that he has
thing that was published in the Star.
ised him none," said the Admiral.

A new way of spelling the name of the independent candidate for Sheriff has been adopted. It is now spelled I. O. U. kea.

LARNACH WILL INVESTIGATE KALUA

Deputy Attorney General Larnach has been assigned the task of investigating the charges which have been brought against Attorney J. W.
Kalua of Maui. The matter was first brought to the attention of the Attorney General's Department through a short note which was received here from the Clerk of the Court on the other island, in which it was merely stated that the charges had been preferred.

Later Attorney Lightfoot, who had been appointed amicus curiae by the Court there, notified the Attorney General's department of the alleged facts, which were the same as those published heretofore.

Mr. Larnach will leave for Maui some time next week, and personally investigate the charges against Kalua.

In a speech before the White Rats Political League, an association of members of the theatrical profession, at New York, Secretary Harry Mumford said ridicule of a candidate by actors on the stage could be made to defeat him.
